THIS HAIR WASH has been prepared TANGTSZE INSURANCE by us for the last 20 years. Its sale is steadily increasing in India, the Straits scrip and nourishes the Hair. Dandruff never appears whilst it is in use. It contains none but the best ingredients, and the greatest care is taken in the compounding. When the Hair falls off after fever or any other sickness, this Wash will surely prove of the greatest value.

From its great nourishing power on the follicles it may in time cause Hair to return to its natural color; it, however, does not contain a particle of any dyeing ingredient. Using it constantly will most certainly prevent the Hair falling. It is cleanly in use, the smallest quantity sufficing. It has no

THE CHINESE-AMERICAN

TINDATE

The Shanghai Courier devotes a few remarks to the consideration of the Immigration Treaty lately formulated by the Special Commissioners from the United States to Peking. In the course of his remarks, our contemporary says: The stump orators in speaking of the reciprocity that is alleged to exist between China and the United States, lay great stress on the fact that whereas the Chinese are admitted in unlimited humbers to trade or reside in any part of America, American citizens, the British, and indeed all foreigners. are restricted to a few ports in China. same concession for her nationals residing croised in America, Australia, and other parts of the British dominions, and then there might have been occasion for the distribes of Kearney and anti-Chinese igitators.

The expression of opinion here cre-than the writer in the Courier appears to have done. Probably our contemporary was unaware of the existence of

Anson Burlingame, of the suggestion which that Envoy's atterances often Annie S. Hall, Amer. barkentine, Capt. | made of "stump oratory." or of the celebrated Treaty which takes his name. Those who do remember what the Burlingame Treaty was expected to accomplish by its authors and advocates, will in some measure understand the views then entertained as to reciprocity and the manner in which that reciprocity has since been carried out. The real point, however, involved in reciprocity, as laid down in these columns, was this. Instead of going back upon the Burlingame Treaty, and doing a thing so utterly un-American as to apply Protective laws to immigration into the U. S. A., the Government should have insisted upon the same freedom of acce-s into China being grapted to their citizens as that accorded by the United States to all classes of Chinese subiects. This would have made the reciprocity an accomplished fact, whereas it has hitherto been a mere flourish of the pen upon a diplomatic document, and indeed was an empty flourish of words from their first utterance The 7th article of the Burlingant Treaty fairly illustrates the amount of reciprocity conceded by that instrument. Look at it:-" Citizens of the United States shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Government of China; -(the italics are ours)-"and reciprocally, Chinese subjects shall enjoy all the privileges of the public educational institutions under the control of the Government of the United States," etc. This imperfect reciprocity again forces upon the attention the necessarily arbitrary rule of extra-territoriality. Upon the assumption that Chinese laws are as good as American or English laws, and that the right of extra-territorial jurisdiction should not be confined to the Western Powers of civilisation, how is it that Western students have not SATURDAY, April 2:-- flocked to Peking "to enjoy all the Daylight.-Mitsu Bishi Mail leaves for privileges of the public educational inflocked to Peking "to enjoy all the stitutions under the control of the Goverument of China"? Although, as we have said, nothing can justify a great and free country like the United States in imitating China in its exclusiveness, 4 p.m. -Brisbane leaves for Sydney and | it is sheer folly to drag in the question of extra-territoriality as affecting the subject in any way. The impossibility Noon.—Auction of River Steamer Kin- of permitting the subjects of civilised countries to become amenable to semicivilised jurisdiction is beyond all

On the subject of Opium, and the ridiculous stipulation in the new treaty in regard to that dring, the Courier is much more intelligent. After laying it down very forcibly that Opium is as great a curse to China as alcoholic liquors have been and are to the West, the writer proceeds:-

But on the other hand the trade is a profitable one, and supplies the means of a livelihood to millions of our Indian subjects. and as an American critic observes "it is a trade recognised by the Chinese Government who levy and collect regular duties and allow transportation freely under the Chinese flag, and opium is encouraged more or less as an object of local taxation." But leaving this consideration out of the question, the stipulations which prohibit American citizens importing opium into Soda Water, Lemonade, Tonic Water, China and which impose the same restrict tions upon Chinese traders towards the United States, is simply ridiculous. The Americans have comparatively speaking, nothing to do with the opium trade which a almost entirely in the hands of the British, and they, therefore, promise that which means nothing. They agree to abstain from a traffic, in which they have no concern, but, perhaps, they think to injure British trade prospects in this article. Besides this, the clause is ineffective in touching Americans in China, for (as contemporary remarks) if they wished to engage in the opium trade, they could employ foreign clerks, instead of American and do the business in their name, and through them. The whole clause will prove most disastrous to American shipping in Chinese waters. To quote the words of contemporary, America will give up ! the whole local carrying trade, coast, and river, to English and German shipping. subsidizes the vessels of other nations by the amount of the freight-money on opium.

28 The publication of this issue commenced As we have all along contended, the Opium traffic must be dealt with moral agencies, because, however much we may deplore the evils wronglit by alcoholic liquors and this narcotic drug they cannot be satisfactorily met b egislative enactment. If any one were to propose the abolition of the spiri trade in England, that man would be laughed out of Court. But when the same is said of the Opium trade in Chins, those who apply the argument to this part of the world are put down as un-Christian and immoral. So fa as the United States Treaty is concerned, the reference to Quium is simply sigh-sounding nonsense.

To those who know anything of the progress of high class musical art in the Colonies or in India during nearly a life-time past, the name of Carandini needs no recommendation. The Company make its first appearance here this time. It is needless to say that they have been highly spoken of in Australia. For many years past every word and phrase of compliment has been worn threadbare in writing their praises.

The audience, by its good-nature and its willingness not only to appreciate (a tael being equal to 5s.,) of everything that was artistic but to laugh made up somewhat by its earnestness for what it lacked in strength of numbers. The first part of the entertainment was in the orthodox form of the Christy Minstrell grouping: the jokes were very well told. and there was an air of originality about them which made them all the more toothsome morsels. You. Chan Alam and Lai Ayip, have been found guilty of having unlawfully and fraudulently enticed into this Colony a boy eleven years old named Chan Ayun for the ournose of selling him on the 22nd Feb. 1881, and also that you did by fraud detain the ame boy within the Colony for the purpose solling him. In this case the boy was coming back to his home from school in the streets of Fatshan beyond Canton, when you Chan Alam his elder brother enticed him to a tea-house, where you gave him tea and then took him in a boat to another place where the second prisoner met you, and you both took the child to Canton and by steamer thence to Hongkong. Here you ooth through an associate offered the child for sale, but you then failed, and you Ayir took the boy in a boat for the purpose of taking him to a steamer starting for Singapore, but your conduct was so suspicious that Cheng Cho Yi, the boat-woman, took you back to the praya and gave you in charge to the police. At the Central Police Station your story was so plausible that you both got off; you persevered in your bject and the child was offered for sale at 850 in a public manner in a public shop. Fortunately Wong Man In, one of the active agents of the Chinese Society for the suppression of kidnapping, was present, and he caused you to be arrested, and the guilt of each of you has been clearly proved. This case, whilst it exhibits the disgraceful attempt by a brother to sell a younger brother, presents two satisfactory facts, first that a Chinese boatwoman handed one of these prisoners to the police and that afterwards an agent for the Chinese Society to supress this class of crime caused-the arrest and conviction of these prisoners. These facts are indicative of the public mind tending to treat kidnapping as a crime against society calling for active suppretsion. The sentence of the Court on you, Chan Alam, is that you be kept in penal servitude for three years. The sentence of this Court on you, Lai Ayip, is that you be MR Wm. THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publish-

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance."

The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resumé in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department. Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish, new or unpublished details concerning the matter in band. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August. 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christlanity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Keview. Address China Review, Hongkong.—Northern

Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- " This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say | Queen's Road Central. nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable: and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, Arcade. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshuess of style; and an account of the career of .the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating-to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its/predecessor in the field, and that the China Heview may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intend-

Parcels insufficiently packed or protected, Section. or liable to be crushed (as bandboxes, 1. Fr &c.) Glass, Liquids, Explosive substances, Matches, Indigo, Dyestuffs, Ice, Meat, Fish, Game, Fruit, Vegetables, or whatever is dangerous to the Mails, or likely to become offensive or injurious in transit.

8. Parcels will as a general rule be forwarded by Private Ship, not by Contract Mail Packet. The Post Office reserves the right of selecting the opportunity for transmission, and of delaying delivery in case the number of parcels is such as to retard other correspondence. No responsibility is accepted with regard to any parcel, but the system of Regutration will secure the senders against any bot a very remote probability of loss.

4. The public are cautioned not to confound these facilities with a Parcel Post to Europe, do, which does not exist.

It is necessary that the following rules be strictly observed. 1. No Letter or Packet, whether to be registered or unregistered, can be received for Postage if it contains gold or silver money. jewels, precious articles, or anything that, as a general rule, is liable to Customs duties.

2. This Regulation prohibits the sending of Patterns of dutiable articles, unless the quantity sent be so small as to make the sample of no value.

3. The limits of weight allowed are as .follows :— -Books and Papers-to British Offic s, 5 lbs.; to the Continent, &c., 4 lbs. Patterns-to British Offices. 5 lbs. if without intrinsic value; to the Continent, dzc., 8 oz.

Indemnity for the Loss of a Registered Letter.

The Post Office is not legally responsible for the safe delivery of Registered correspondence, but it is prepared to make good the contents of such correspondence lost while passing through the Post, to the extent of $10, in certain cases, provided :-1. That the sender duly observed all the conditions of Registration require.

2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong envelope.

3. That application was made to the Postmaster General of Hongkong immediately the loss was discovered, the envelope being invariably forwarded with such application unless it also is lost.

4. That the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss occurred whilst the correspondence was in the custody of the British Postal administration in China, that it was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender, by destruction by fire, or shipwreck, nor by the dishouesty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Hongkong Post Office.

5. No compensation can be paid for more damage to fragile articles such as portraits, watches, handsomely bound books, &c., which reach their destination, although in a broken or deteriorated condition.

Money Order Regulations.

1 -Money Orders are exchanged with the United Kingdom, New South Wales, Queensland, South Australia and Port Darwin, the Straits Settlements, Western Australia, and (except at Shanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also isaues orders on Shanghai, and vice versa.

2 -Small sums may be remitted between the other Ports by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent, for cashing them.

3.-Many Money Orders are supplied to residents at the smaller Ports in this way. An application for an order* is filled up. and is enclosed with a stamped directed. and unsealed envelope to the Postmaster at the nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cheque, postage stamps, or other equivalent of cash, and a little margin should be left for variations of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by first opportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications in time, as the Money Order Offices close some hours before the departures of the mails.

4.—No order must exceed £10, or $50. or include any fraction of a penny, nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same person, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the day, and paid at the rate of the day when the advice arrived.

The commission is as follows :-Orders on the United Kingdom. Up to £2...... 18 cents. . £5...... 36 ,, " £7...... 54 "

£10......72 ,, Local and Intercolonial Orders. Up to $25 or £5 ..... 25 cents. ,, $50 or £10....50 ,,
